KENYA BUILD

Declaration :

I understand fully that I am a volunteer and that I am volunteering to participate in a humanitarian mission. I understand that this is not a holiday or a travel package of any type or description. I understand as in any humanitarian mission there will be mistakes, errors, delays and disappointments. I accept that accommodation will be very basic by European standards. I accept that volunteer work in Africa can expose me to dangers and diseases which could result in personal injury, illness or death. I fully understand and accept that Kenya Build or Basil Love are not responsible or liable for any injuries, medical conditions damage or loss of property arising from my participation on the Kenya Build project. I understand that I require a high level of health and fitness to participate. I undertake to consult the opinion of my doctor prior to participating in the project. I undertake to take whatever inoculations / medication that my doctor advises that I need for travelling to Kenya. I undertake to take out appropriate medical/travel insurance for the period of the humanitarian project.
